Sandberg Wireless Speakerphone Pro is the perfect solution for great audio in your online meetings. It connects wireless to your PC through the included USB dongle, and it even have a built in rechargeable battery. This makes it possible to place it nicely in the middle of the conference table, with no cables around, providing microphone and speaker in one single unit. Perfect as an alternative to a headset in your home office, or for the conference room in the office for up to 6-8 persons. With its 360-degrees noise cancelling microphone it will pick up any voice in the room, and reproduce it clearly and with no echo. Wireless remote control included, prepared for combination with Sandberg ConfCam PTZ x10 Remote 1080P.
