

Sandberg Net Card 10/100 M

The Sandberg Network Adapter enables you to connect your computer to a network. Fitting the card in the computer is easy and only takes a few minutes thanks to the detailed user instructions which are very easy to follow. You can then connect your computer to a network, opening up a whole new world of options. You can share hard disks and printers, play games against others, share an Internet connection and much more.

Windows Plug and Play Compliant to IEEE802.3u & IEEE802.3x full duplex flow control Data Transmission rate 10/100
Mbit/s N-Way auto-negotiation operation
LEDs indicating activity/link status Wake on LAN Built-in (requires PCI 2.2) RJ45
connector