

Sandberg Foldable Battery Dock iPhone

The Sandberg Foldable Battery Dock combines a compact portable battery and an attractive stand for your iPhone or iPod. Charge the battery via a USB connection and then charge your iPhone or iPod by placing it in the dock. If the dock is connected to your computer's USB port, your computer will automatically sync with the device. Take the dock with you wherever you go as a power backup and use it as a practical and stylish stand on your desk.
