Sandberg Headlamp 500 Duo is your flexible companion in the dark. The adjustable head allows you to use it both as a headlamp and as a handheld flashlight – ideal when you need both hands free or a portable light source. With a rechargeable battery and a bright 500-lumen LED light, you'll always have reliable illumination at hand. The lamp offers 5 light modes including red light, while the lightweight headband ensures a comfortable fit during extended use. Its IPX4 water-resistant design makes it perfect for outdoor work, camping, or evening runs in light rain. Charge it via USB, and you're ready for your next adventure.
