Sandberg 3in1 Nano Worklight Torch is an ultra-compact and versatile light with a powerful flashlight, work light, and red signal light. Use the front light as a classic flashlight, or switch to the side work light when you need extra illumination for a task. The built-in magnet and clip on the back make it easy to attach the light, so you can have both hands free. Despite its compact size, the light delivers up to 400 lumens. The rechargeable battery is easily charged via USB-C.
