

The S-video on Scart Colorfix ensures that you experience the picture in bright colour - even if your television only supports composite video. Many people have bought S-video to Scart cables only to discover that the picture is only visible in black and white. The Colorfix adapter corrects this problem - simply attach it to the end of the S-video cable and the integrated Colorfix circuit will ensure you get a colour picture!