Key layout displayed is US/INT layout.

The Sandberg Wireless Ergo Keyboard Set combines ergonomic design with everyday comfort at your computer. The curved keyboard features a split-key layout that encourages a more natural hand position, while the soft wrist rest provides additional support. The included vertical mouse is designed to keep your hand and wrist in a more relaxed position. Both devices connect wirelessly through a single USB receiver, keeping your desk free from unnecessary cables. A thoughtfully designed combination that makes working at your computer more comfortable, even for extended periods.
